Dear Community Supporter,

The Board of Directors for the Feast of the Flowering Moon are excited to share with you that we will be moving forward with the festival this year. We are extremely excited to welcome the community back to the annual festival and have coordinated more community participation to the event. In 2019, the Festival introduced a new event, "Pie in the Face", which generated nearly $5,100 in funds that were donated to five charities serving Ross County.

Staying true to the purpose behind the Feast of the Flowering Moon, the Board will once again have a wide variety of Native American dancers performing and educating the community. We are pursuing additional opportunities that may result in guest speakers to talk about Native American culture and bringing hands-on activities for children to learn about archaeology of the region.

We understand that businesses and organizations have all been affected by the pandemic, so we have updated our sponsorship levels to provide more exposure for your business without raising sponsorship costs to you. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the Feast of the Flowering Moon is extremely grateful to its annual sponsors and supporters. It's through your support that we can grow the festival and showcase the rich Native American heritage here in Chillicothe. We have streamlined our sponsorship program for 2021 which reflects the opportunities to showcase your organization to the thousands of patrons who attend the festival. Benefits include being featured on our website, social media, promotional materials, advertising through signage, and event booth space.

Please take a moment to complete the enclosed sponsorship form to begin receiving your benefits. Sponsorships are due by May 7, 2021 so we can fulfill your benefits. Additionally, we hope that you will join us May 28th – May 30th for this year's Feast of the Flowering Moon. You can find more information about the festival and activities taking place by visiting us online at www.FeastoftheFloweringMoon.org or by following us on Facebook.

Sincerely,

Gene Betts
President
